

JATA Privacy Policy

JATA protects your personal data in accordance with this policy below.

1. Personal data collection

-Personal data will be collected fairly and in accordance with the law.

2. Personal data usage

-We use your Personal Information only for the purpose you agreed on collection and to process our necessary duties.

-We may use or share the information with third party when necessary. We must conduct appropriate inspection and supervision to the third party.

3. Disclosure to a third party

The collected personal information may not be disclosed and provided to a third party without personal consent unless otherwise exceptional circumstances.

4. Securing safety

-We take necessary safe management measures to protect accurate information from prevention of leak, loss and destruction.

5. Disclosure, correction, addition or deletion and suspension

-JATA confirms you may request regarding personal information held by us which is subject to disclosure, correction, addition or deletion and suspension.

-We will respond promptly without objection when you make the above request.

Contact us at jata@jata-net.or.jp

6. Organization

To ensure proper handling of personal information, JATA appoints an administrator who is trained and monitors the everyday operation.

7. Personal Information Protection Compliance Program Formulation implementation maintenance and update.

-We act according with the Personal Information Protection Compliance Program as well as the management regulations.

-We reserve the right to formulate, implement, maintain and update the above program, also make full dissemination to all employees and the relevant personnel's,

Secretary General
Japan Association of Travel Agents

Note: Last updated on April 1, 2015